Prayers for the Beatification of Servant of God Frank Duff

God our Father, You inspired your servant Frank Duff with a profound insight into the mystery of Your Church, the Body of Christ, and of the place of Mary the Mother of Jesus in this mystery. In his immense desire to share this insight with others and in filial dependence on Mary he formed her Legion to be a sign of her maternal love for the world and a means of enlisting all her children in the Church's evangelising work.

We thank you Father for the graces conferred on him and for the benefits accruing to the Church from his courageous and shining faith. With confidence we beg You that through his intercession you grant the petition we lay before You..... We ask too that if it be in accordance with Your will, the holiness of his life may be acknowledged by the Church for the glory of your Name, through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

En Ego

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus
I cast myself on my knees in Thy sight,
and with the most fervent desire of my soul,
I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope and charity, true repentance for my sins and a firm purpose
of amendment:
whilst with deep affection and grief of soul,
I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate
Thy five most precious wounds, having before my eyes that which David spoke in prophecy concerning Thee:
'They have pierced My hands and My feet,
They have numbered all My bones.

Verbum Dei

Sunday Cycle B

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

30 June 2024

First Reading      Wis 1:13-15, 2:23-24

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Death was not God's doing,
 he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
 To be – for this he created all;
 the world's created things have health in them,
 in them no fatal poison can be found,
 and Hades holds no power on earth;
 for virtue is undying.
 Yet God did make man imperishable,
 he made him in the image of his own nature;
 it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world,
 as those who are his partners will discover.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm      Ps 29:2, 4-6, 11-13, R/ v 2

Response:

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
 and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
 O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R)
2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name.
 His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
 At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.
 (R)
3. The Lord listened and had pity.
 The Lord came to my help.
 For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,
 O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R)

Second Reading      2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

(Stand)

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life:
 you have the message of eternal life.
 Alleluia!

Gospel      Mk 5:21-43

The Lord be with you.
And with your Spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him. Some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'Little girl I tell you to get up'. The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
